Pursuant to Section 2, Article VII of the By-Laws of the Association, the Board of Trustees approved to organize the formation of the Grievance and Adjudication Committee and the Committee on Election. It states as follows:

“Section 2. Regular Committees. The Board of Trustees shall, as and when it shall deem proper, organize the formation of the following regular committees:

“xxx

“g. Grievance and Adjudication Committee. The members of the grievance and adjudication committee, who should have experience in counselling, shall be elected by the members in the annual meeting of members. The committee shall accept and investigate complaints filed by a member against any other member or officer of the Association and shall settle or arbitrate any dispute within its power in the community. In the event that the grievance is not settled by the committee, its decision may be brought before the Board of Trustees for appropriate action.

“xxx

“i. Committee on Election. The committee on election shall be composed of three (3) members, to be elected by the members in the annual meeting who shall serve for a term of one (1) year until their successors have been elected and duly qualified.”

The above-named nominees possess all the qualifications and none of the disqualifications under the Amended By-Laws of the Association and applicable laws.
